

Press Release – iSQI

Potsdam, Germany

26 October 2021

iSQI now offering A4Q IQBBA Business Analysis certification including the updated iSQI Certified Agile Business Analysis

The iSQI Group is delighted to announce that it will be offering the International Qualifications Board for Business Analysis (IQBBA) business analysis certifications, which are now part of the Alliance for Qualification (A4Q) suite of products.

The IQBBA portfolio currently includes foundation (Certified Foundation Level Business Analysis – CFLBA) and advanced (Certified Advanced Level Business Analysis – CALBA) certifications. iSQI will offer the certification exams to training providers globally after training, and also via remote proctor and Pearson VUE test centers.

The iSQI Certified Agile Business Analysis (CABA) product has been updated and will now be offered as an A4Q certification and recognized as part of the IQBBA (International Qualifications Board for Business Analysis) scheme as a foundation-level module. This new release will be known as the A4Q IQBBA Certified Agile Business Analysis (A4Q IQBBA CABA). Additionally A4Q IQBBA CABA will be recognized as a prerequisite module to the A4Q IQBBA Certified Advanced Level Business Analysis.

The iSQI CABA scheme will have a sunset period of 6 months (to 26 April 2022) after which time no further training or exams should take place based on that version of the materials.

Stephan Goericke, CEO of iSQI stated “It is well recognized that organizations can leverage business analysis to achieve their strategic goals and gain market advantage – having skilled professionals is an imperative. IQBBA and the updated CABA becoming part of the A4Q product suite will further underpin these as leading business analysis certifications. iSQI are delighted to be offering these certification exams to our customers around the world ”
